

Principals Want to Know

A tip sheet for principals that focuses on practical issues faced in schools.

Drawn from existing resources, these tips are designed to support principals in their work.

Issue #12 February 2012

IPRC and IEP

The Question:

“What is the link between the Identification, Placement and Review Committee (IPRC) and the Individual Education Plan (IEP)?”

“All students shall have the opportunity to succeed.”

at least three persons, one of whom must be a principal or supervisory officer of the board. A school board trustee may not be on the IPRC.”

Special Education: A Guide for Educators, D4

- x The principal will refer a student to an IPRC, usually following a recommendation from the in-school team.
- x The IPRC must take an educational assessment of the student into account. The results of ongoing and continuous program interventions and additional assessments as requested by the school team are often part of the team’s recommendation to IPRC.

qLPP 0.000u con4 P/MCID 42 24-uC6EsJINCIPAH38stduC

“Classroom teachers need the support of the larger community to create a learning environment that supports all students.”

(Learning for All K-12-draft)

“When programming for students with exceptionalities, use a variety of instructional methodologies that incorporate differentiated